REHIRED ANNUITANTS

As of 30 April 1976, there were 212 civilian annuitants on board, either as contract employees or independent contractors. (This number is exclusive of the [redacted] rehired annuitants serving as independent contractors)

25X1
With the exception of DDO independent contractors and the [redacted] independent contractors, the names of these individuals appear on the Agency staffing complement. In providing a total list to the Senate, it is suggested that there may be some sensitivity in providing the names of those in the DDO because of the nature of their operational tasks.

EXTERNAL EMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE

The External Employment Assistance Branch develops job leads for individuals leaving the Agency who desire to continue working. Locations of job opportunities are fluid at best; however, at present, listings include approximately 150 companies with whom we are in contact.

CONSULTANTS LIST

The Agency is currently engaging 53 individuals, based on their particular skills, as consultants approved by the DCI. It is very conceivable that some of these individuals may wish that their names not be made available to the Committee.

AGREEMENT WITH DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Annual agreement between CIA and DOD re numbers of anticipated Agency requirements for military officers and enlisted personnel.

RECRUITMENT SOURCES

Upon request, can assemble a list of academic and non-academic organizations with whom Agency recruiters maintain contact for routine recruitment purposes.

DETAILS

Generally prepared quarterly. List of Agency employees who are detailed to other Government agencies and employees of other Government agencies (military and civilian) who are detailed to the Central Intelligence Agency. Some arrangements are very sensitive.

QUESTIONABLE CONDUCT

On an ad hoc basis, we could provide information on questionable conduct on the part of Agency employees. We should point out, though, that this information will probably be available from the Inspector General -- possibly in more depth.

STAFFING COMPLEMENT BY OFFICE

Shows both staff and contract employees and the Agency component of assignment. In most cases will show grade of position and grade of employee. Certain sections could be sensitive.

PERSONNEL STRENGTH REPORTS

The Office of Personnel has the capacity to produce a variety of personnel status reports concerning employees, positions, strength of various components, average grade, average salary, etc.
